NORTHERN ARIZONA SETS SEVEN PROVISIONAL MARKS

Northern Arizona dropped down to sea level and put on an impressive show in Seattle at the Husky Classic. The Lumberjacks set seven NCAA provisional marks from both the men and women.

Curtis Durocher continued his strong 2009 campaign by improving his weight throw mark for the fourth straight week. His throw of 65-11.0 ranks him 17th nationally and fourth in Big Sky history. The Lumberjack's success was continued in distance running, with four men setting provisional times in the 5,000 meters and two women setting provisional times in the 3,000 meters.

Sophomore Ben Ashkettle had the best time for the men and junior Veronica Pohl lead the women. Ashkettle's time of 13:55.27 is 14th best nationally and fourth in Big Sky history. Pohl ran the fourth fastest time in Big Sky history, with a time of 9:18.56. She also ranks 22nd in the nation.

Sacramento State's Ericka Violet improved on a strong performance from last week. The junior set two NCAA provisional marks over the weekend in the pole vault and the long jump. The height of 12-11.75 places her sixth in Big Sky history and the long jump of 20-0.25 is ninth best.
